

to the same school in West Salem as both her parents had attended. Going on to North Salem High School, Shirley was graduated in 1941, and in fall of that year entered Willamette University, remaining there for an extra year after graduation in 1945, to qualify for her extra teaching certificate.

Clifton H. Boehmer

After their marriage, Shirley and Clift moved to Corvallis, where he attended college. During this time Shirley taught English in the high school in the small neighboring town of Philomath, for two years, and then took a job at Oregon State College until Clift received his degree in 1950 in agricultural engineering.

Shirley A. Boehmer

Clifton came to Oregon with his folks from South Dakota in February 1942. During the second World War, he served in the Second Marine Division. He bought the farm which had formerly belonged to James Best, in Polk County, and has 500 acres in Marion County, a total of 750 acres on which he is farming grass seed and cherries. He is also a real estate broker and has his own Hill Villa Estates, Inc.
